

Getting there

Seminar bus (recommended ~2-3 hr)

An allocated bus to the seminar will leave from Dan Panorama Hotel in Tel Aviv (most of the other hotels in Tel-Aviv are located nearby) on January 7 at 11:00. The same bus will arrive at Ben-Gurion airport at approximately 11:45 (meeting point near the 'Steimatzky' bookstore in the Arrivals Hall), and will leave to Sde Boker at 12:00.

The meeting will end on January 11 at 14:00, and the bus will leave at 14:30. It is expected to arrive to the airport at ~16:30, and to Tel Aviv at ~17:30.

Public transportation

From Tel Aviv (~3 hr): From any of Tel-Aviv's train stations, take a train to "Central Station Beer Sheva". Walk (2 min) to the central bus station, and take bus #60 or #64 to "Midreshet Ben-Gurion". The bus leaves you at the entrance gate to the campus, and there is a ~20 min walk to the guesthouse.

From the airport (~3.5 hr): You must first take a train to Tel-Aviv HaHagana Station, and from there continue as instructed above.

Taxi from the airport (~2 hr): The cost is around NIS 500, depending on the hour that you arrive and how many people you are.

If you will not make it to the seminar bus, please contact Mrs. Yael Stern (cms@math.technion.ac.il) and we shall try to arrange your transportation to Sde Boker.

By Car

Set your GPS to "Midreshet Sde Boker" or "Midreshet Ben-Gurion". If you don't have internet access, once at Midreshet Sde Boker campus, ask for directions to the "Beit Sefer Sade" offices (field school offices).
