

How to get food and, in particular, where to have dinner

People who stay at the hotel get breakfast at the hotel and people who stay at the guest house will get vouchers for coffee and sandwich at the Shave cafeteria (3rd floor in the Ullman Building). Lunches are arranged as part of the workshop, as are a reception on Sunday evening and a banquet on Wednesday evening.

However, on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings you'll need to fend for yourselves. There are a lot of nice places to eat on Hanassi Boulevard near Dan Panorama Hotel. If you want a recommendation, check out The Bear Inn, Hummus Bardichev or Japanika (see the hearts in the following map):

If you are staying at the guesthouse, you can find several affordable dinner options in the students' house nearby, or you can go to Ziv Square. Among various possibilities, Falafel Zohar is worth checking out (closes at 8 pm) and the Nola Socks Pub is also a nice place. Here are directions from the guesthouse to Ziv Square:
